

Being based at MHT I am against the reduction in operating hours for the class C airspace. One of the reasons this company moved here was for the 24 hour support of ATC. The reduction would jeopardize safety and efficiency.